

BRAD FOWLER BIO

Brad Fowler joined Mecklenburg County as the Assistant Assessor in 2021. Prior to joining the Mecklenburg County team, Brad was the Tax Administrator for Catawba County. Previously he was the Assistant Assessor in Durham County and the Commercial Real Property Manager for Mecklenburg County.

Brad is a graduate of UNC Charlotte and is certified as a County Assessor and Real Property Appraiser III by the North Carolina Department of Revenue. He has earned the Residential Evaluation Specialist (RES), the Assessment Administration Specialist (AAS) designations from the International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO) and is a senior instructor of property tax assessment.

Currently Brad Serves on the Legislative Committee for the North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers as well as the Resolutions and Publications Committee. He is also a member of the Professional Designation Task Force for the IAAO.

Brad spends most of his time away from work with his wife Heather of 20 years and two daughters Natalie and Taylor. He enjoys golf and watching sports as well as the occasional home projects.