

Bradley A. Smith

Commercial Real Estate Banking – Southeast Market Executive

Global Commercial Banking

Brad Smith is a Senior Vice President and the Commercial Real Estate Banking Southeast Market Executive at Bank of America Merrill Lynch. His team covers North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. His team works with a wide variety of developers, funds, and REITs participating in all aspects of the real estate markets, including office, hotel, industrial, multi-family, retail and homebuilder sectors.

Based in Charlotte, Smith is a 30-year+ veteran of the company. He spent the first 13 years of his career in the company's Commercial Real Estate business, advancing from client manager to Charlotte Market Manager. Starting in 2003, he held different roles as the Sales Performance Executive or Business Support Executive for several national businesses, including Commercial Real Estate Banking, Bank of America Business Capital, Dealer Financial Services, Middle Market Banking and Business Banking, Treasury Products, and Credit Products. He assumed his current role in summer 2012.