

Hanna Cockburn, AICP has practiced transportation, recreation and land use planning in the public sector in North Carolina since 1998. Hanna joined NCDOT in February 2018 as the Director of the Bicycle and Pedestrian Transportation Division and was appointed Interim Director of the Public Transportation in January 2019. In her current role she is focused on the intersection of active transportation, micro-mobility and transit.

Hanna holds a Bachelor of Arts from Cornell College and a Master of Arts in Urban and Regional Planning from Minnesota State University. She is a member of the American Planning Association, the American Institute of Certified Planners and a 2015 Local Government Fellow. She serves as the Vice President for Professional Development for the North Carolina Chapter APA and Chairs the APA Education Committee. She serves on the AASHTO Council on Active Transportation, Council on Public Transportation and Technical Committee on Non-Motorized Transportation and is a member of the Transportation Research Board Standing Committee on Transportation Needs of National Parks and Public Lands.

